Division of Criminal Justice Academy

The Division of Criminal Justice Academy has been a Police Training Commission approved academy since 1980. Established originally to conduct the Basic Course for Investigators, the Division of Criminal Justice Academy has expanded its curriculum to include other PTC approved courses, such as the revised Modified Basic Course for Investigators, the Basic Course for Arson Investigators and the Arson Investigation In-Service Course. In addition, the Academy conducts a wide variety of specialty and management development courses not generally available at other police academies. The Academy also provides continuing education to state investigators and deputy attorneys general from the Division of Criminal Justice.

White Collar/Corruption Investigation & Prosecution – 3 Day Course

Fee: $50.00

Description: This program is designed to train detectives on the numerous investigative techniques in white collar and/or corruption investigations. This course is specifically designed to train both experienced and inexperienced detectives in the filed of financial/white collar and/or corruption investigations. It will explore the common "red flags" that these types of cases present and the investigative options available to fully investigate them. It will also explore such topics as fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent disbursements, loan fraud, check fraud and kitting, ponzi schemes, bid rigging, kickback schemes, pyramid schemes, money laundering, bankruptcy fraud, misapplication of government resources, bribery, conflicts, insurance fraud, official misconduct, contract fraud, and pay-to-play laws. The course will review the investigative steps necessary to conduct historical and covert investigations; the use of the investigatory grand jury and subpoenas; provide guidance as to how to analyze financial documents such as bank records; and provide guidance as to how to organize "big document" cases. Finally, the course will update the law on these issues and provide guidance as to how to handle the unique issues associated with a high-profile corruption investigation/prosecution.
